Making Companies More Valuable

The Business Purpose of Twoeyes is to make companies more valuable. We work with Entrepreneurs, Business Owners, Boards and CEO's to convert strategy and action into operational and economic performance.

Whatever your stage of enterprise growth, Twoeyes can help clarify and execute strategy, improve operational performance, reduce business risk and create value for key stakeholders.

The Enterprise Pathway

Stages of growth and sources of funding for high growth enterprises.

Clarity from Experience

The Twoeyes Team of Advisors works closely with enterprise leaders to prepare their business for operational improvement, strategic growth, equity investment or trade sale.

Unlike many business consultants and advisors, we understand first-hand what it means to own and grow a business. Twoeyes team members are not just specialists in their respective fields: as business owners ourselves, we have first-hand experience of the demands of growth in small, medium and large companies and have personally undertaken capital raisings, trade sales and business acquisitions. As a result, we can offer our clients clarity and insight that only 'hard won' experience can bring.

Whatever the assignment, Twoeyes' focus is clear: achieve a strategic business position that is unique and sustainable, improve operational performance and reduce business risk, resulting in greater benefits to key stakeholders and a significant increase in the value of shareholders' equity.

Strategic Operational Planning

For Entrepreneurs:

- Your strategic 'path to market' is unclear.
- You have a great technology but need to link strategy to sales and operational performance.
- You need to raise venture funding and attract key people to support growth.
- You are seeking development partners and strategic corporate investors.
- You value 'first hand' experience - not just good advice.

For Business Owners:

- Your long-term strategy needs clarifying.
- Your operational performance – from process to people - needs improvement.
- You need to get the business ready for growth and/or capital raising
- You need to prepare for exit or succession.
- A trade sale or management buy-out/buy-in may be on the horizon.

For Boards & CEO's:

- The Board demands more than just organic growth.
- You need to review strategy and seek new revenue-generating opportunities.
- You need to link strategic objectives with operational performance.
- You are seeking a 'bolt-on' acquisition or strategic alliances with emerging, high-growth ventures.
- You need to maximise shareholder returns.
